1. Maintain support from new city councilors and the current city council for public art and roundabout art in Bend.
2. Review current landscape and maintenance agreement between the City of Bend and AiPP. Reach an agreement on standards of landscape upkeep in roundabouts and gain future commitment from council to maintain this level.
3. Gain a commitment from the City of Bend that the agreement will apply to future art installations so AiPP has confidence in placing art in the Reed Market roundabout, as well as others.

1. The council's support and commitment to maintain the landscape in roundabouts is essential in order for AiPP to commit to placing art in future roundabouts in Bend.

Please share what the committee does well and also what you feel it could improve upon in 2015.

AiPP works well with the City and the public to select and place public art and roundabout art in Bend. We engage in a public process to select appropriate art for designated locations. AiPP also works closely with Visit Bend and the local arts coalition to promote art as a tourism attraction and cultural experience while visiting and living in Bend.
